GRAD 710R: Graduate International Experience Proposal

Submit this form to the Laney Graduate School to enroll in GRAD 710R.

GRAD 710R allows students to receive course credit for time spent acquiring training or conducting research in an international context through a formal or informal program. Eligible experiences are those affiliated with a formal academic program or a pre-arranged experience with a dedicated host who will serve as advisor and/or mentor during the trip.

At the conclusion of the international experience, students will need to submit a written report (500 words) on the experience 10 days prior to the end of the semester for which he/she would like course credit. Failure to submit the completion report in the required timeframe will result in forfeiture of credit.
